

NEIGHBORS FOR REFUGEES

December 2, 2023

Each of us has a network. Neighbors is asking you to tap yours to help our clients find jobs. We have seen that personal contact with a hiring manager, friend of a friend, or neighbor makes a huge difference.

THESE REFUGEES NEED YOUR HELP

CLAUDIA

Claudia, a young bilingual banking professional, and her husband and daughter left Venezuela in the midst of economic and social upheaval. With Neighbors' help, they are now safe and Claudia is working hard to find a job. She has fully approved working papers and can start immediately.

WHAT TYPE OF WORK: Wide range of skills including office administration, customer service, back-office management, insurance sales. She will consider any part or full-time positions in any work environment (retail, business, health)

B.A. in Business Management, Venezuela.

TARGET AREA: New Rochelle, Mamaroneck, Larchmont, White Plains, Pelham

ENGLISH LEVEL: Fully bilingual in English and Spanish

MAX

Max, a proud father of four, and his wife took a huge leap of faith in coming to the U.S. Their oldest daughter is now attending Mercy College. Their other three children are doing well in the New Rochelle public schools.

WHAT TYPE OF WORK: Any job requiring limited English while he improves language skills. Has a driver's license. can drive a box truck for deliveries

TARGET AREA: New Rochelle, Larchmont, Mamaroneck

ENGLISH LEVEL: Beginner

NFR SUCCESS STORY

Malik

Our 29-year-old client Malik and his wife are now the proud parents of a healthy baby girl. Malik was hired for a job in environmental services at White Plains Hospital, an easy commute from their home in a growing Afghani community nearby. His English has improved rapidly, making a big difference in his life. He has purchased a car to make extra income from delivery work.

Neighbors Family Team Leader Clark Morehouse holds Malik's baby in the family's new apartment.

Do you have any leads, suggestions, or contacts who might be able to help with any job searches above? (Contacts must give permission to be contacted.) Would you like further information about any of these applicants, including their resumes? Please reach us at info@neighborsforrefugees.org.